USPA NEWS - Rock the Country 2025 in Ashland Kentucky was a huge Success. Thousands of people attended this year's event. People from all over the country showed up to watch a stunning lineup of Professional Talent in the music industry. Several vendors and food and drinks were available as well. Lawhun Enforcement and Medics were on site for safety and security. A campsite was available for the weekend as well. Everyone I spoke to over the two day event really enjoyed themselves and said they will be returning. Overall all my opinion is if you are into concerts this is one you definitely want to attend. Everyone was very nice and it was a very pleasant time.

Rock the Country 2025 in Ashland Kentucky

This year's Rock the Country Music Festival was amazing. There was tons of parking availability all over. The camping site was huge and nice and clean. Entry into the event flowed smooth and was fast. The stage set up and vip was set up nice. General admission was also nice. Chairs to set on were permitted to bring in. Had several vendors on had. Food items were also available throughout the festival. Bathroom facilities were plentiful and clean. The air condition tent was a nice touch if needed to get out the sun. Fridays weather was super hot. Saturdays weather was a lot cooler. Everyone I talked to had fun and said they will return. Everyone was nice and easy to get along with. The music talent was really good for the two day event. Friday started off with Hudson Westbrook, Sammy Kershaw, Kentucky Headhunters, Shenandoah, Ying Yang Twins, Tracy Lawrence, Kid Rock monstrous performance finished up the night. Saturdays Lineup started off with Them Dirty Roses, Deana Carter, Mark Chestnut, Afroman, Hank Williams Jr, NickelBack finished up the night with a huge performance. I would say if you are a concert goer Rock The Country is definitely one you want to attend.
